COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS
Sub-Commission on the Promotion and Protection of Human Rights
Fifty-second session

PROVISIONAL AGENDA

Note by the Secretary-General

Duration and venue of the session

1. The fifty-second session of the Sub-Commission on the Promotion and Protection of Human Rights will be held at the United Nations Office at Geneva from 31 July to 18 August 2000.* The first meeting will be convened at 10.30 a.m. on Monday, 31 July 2000.

Provisional agenda

2. The provisional agenda, prepared in accordance with rule 5 of the rules of procedure of the functional commissions of the Economic and Social Council, is reproduced below.

* Subject to approval by the Economic and Social Council, at its substantive session of 2000, of the recommendation of the Commission on Human Rights that the annual session of the Sub-Commission shall, from this year, be of three weeks' duration (Commission decision 2000/109, annex B, draft decision 5).

 Based on the draft provisional agenda for the fifty-second session of the Sub-Commission as contained in the report of the Sub-Commission on its fifty-first session (E/CN.4/2000/2-E/CN.4/Sub.2/1999/54, para. 284), and revised on the basis of the expected adoption by the Economic and Social Council of a resolution concerning the review of the procedure for dealing with communications concerning human rights (see Commission decision 2000/109, annex B, draft resolution).

Inter-sessional, pre-sessional and post-sessional working groups

3. In accordance with relevant decisions, the fifty-second session of the Sub-Commission will be preceded by meetings of three working groups and followed by a meeting of one working group as follows:

(a) Working Group on Minorities, established pursuant to Economic and Social Council resolution 1995/31 of 25 July 1995. This working group of five members of the Sub-Commission met for five working days, from 22 to 26 May 2000;

(b) Working Group on Contemporary Forms of Slavery, established pursuant to Economic and Social Council decision 16 (LVI) of 17 May 1974. In accordance with the arrangements endorsed by the Commission on Human Rights in its resolution 1993/27 of 5 March 1993, this working group of five members of the Sub-Commission will meet for eight working days prior to the fifty-second session of the Sub-Commission, from 14 to 23 June 2000;

(c) Working Group on Indigenous Populations, established pursuant to Economic and Social Council resolution 1982/34 of 7 May 1982. This working group of five members of the Sub-Commission will meet for five working days prior to the fifty-second session of the Sub-Commission, from 24 to 28 July 2000;

(d) Working Group on Communications, established under Sub-Commission resolution 2 (XXIV) in accordance with paragraph 1 of Economic and Social Council resolution 1503 (XLVIII) of 27 May 1970. Pursuant to the revised procedure for dealing with communications concerning human rights proposed by the Commission on Human Rights for approval by the Economic and Social Council (see Commission decision 2000/109, annex B, draft resolution), this working group of five members of the Sub-Commission will meet for two weeks immediately following the fifty-second session of the Sub-Commission, from 21 August to 1 September 2000.

In-sessional working groups

4. Since its thirty-fourth session in 1981, the Sub-Commission has established a sessional working group to assist it in relation to its annual review of developments concerning the human rights of persons subjected to any form of detention or imprisonment. At its forty-sixth session in 1994, the Sub-Commission established a sessional working group on the administration of justice and the question of compensation in place of a sessional working group on detention.

5. The Sub-Commission may wish to consider establishing such a sessional working group at its fifty-second session.

6. At its fiftieth session, the Sub-Commission, in resolution 1998/8, decided to establish, for a three-year period, a sessional working group of the Sub-Commission, composed of five of its members, to examine the working methods and activities of transnational corporations.
